This 1973 winner for Broadway's best musical was adapted from an Ingmar Bergman film "Smiles of a Summer Night."

With the music set almost entirely in waltz time, it relates the romantic lives of several couples at the turn of the last century in Sweden. A successful lawyer has wed an immature virgin unable to grasp the meaning of marriage after some 11 months; his ex-lover, an actress appears and comic complications ensue. The show's hit song is "Send In The Clowns."
